OCIA

Is held on Wednesdays at 7:00 pm here in Ravenna at the Parish Hall.

End of Year Donations

Any donations that you would like to have on your 2025 contributions need to be into the office by January 5th, after that they will be on your 2026 offerings. Then I will start mailing out the statements the middle of January.

Calendars

The 2026 calendars have finally arrived so be sure to get one picked up. Some are at each of the doors.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Epiphany is a Christian holiday primarily commemorating the Magi's visit to the baby Jesus and the baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist. Eastern traditions, which usually call the holiday Theophany, focus on Jesus' baptism, seen as the manifestation of Christ as both fully human and fully divine. Western traditions focus on the Magi's visit, seen as the first manifestation of Christ as saviour of Gentiles as well as Jews. Epiphany is among the church's oldest and most important feasts. In many countries, Epiphany is celebrated with special pastries, and children often receive small gifts in their shoes in honour of the Magi's gifts to the baby Jesus.

Every Butterfly is New

As I sat at a table on the patio waiting for my morning coffee to cool, a butterfly alighted on my sleeve. I looked down. Very slowly the butterfly's wings opened and closed. The small creature seemed perfect, freshly made. I remembered something I had read. Most butterflies live for about one month. Every butterfly is new. I looked closely at my visitor. I marveled at the filigree wings, as delicate as dreams made real. I could see the tiny eyes. I was careful not to move my arm. I didn't want it to leave. A butterfly, I mused, in its short life dances with the wind, always searching. As this one approached me, what did it see? A patchwork of many colors? An immense, undefinable mass looming like an Everest? An unexplored planet, in an inexplicable orbit, flitting like itself through an ever-changing universe—a universe that beckons infinitely to newly born eyes? A strange flower? The butterfly on my arm was small, bright and new. At once a revelation came to me. I too am new.
