It's Strange

It's strange how twenty dollars seems like such a large amount when you donate it to church, but such a small amount when you go shopping.

It's strange how 2 hours seem so long when you're at church, and how short they seem when you're watching a good movie.

It's strange that you can't find words to say when you're praying, but you have no trouble thinking what to talk about with a friend.

It's strange how difficult it is to read one chapter of the Bible, but how easy it is to read a popular novel.

It's strange how everyone wants front-row-tickets to concerts, but they want to sit in the last row at church.

It's strange how we need to know about an event for church 2-3 weeks before the day so we can include it in our agenda, but we can adjust it for other events in the last minute.

It's strange how difficult it is to learn a fact about God and share it with others, but it's easy to repeat gossip.

It's strange how we believe everything that magazines and newspapers say, but we question the words in the Bible?

Update on Moving the Altar

Latest update is work will begin on either the 11th or 18th of November, depending on the time it takes to finish the job the company is working on now. And we will still take any donations to this project you may want to give. During the renovations the Masses will be held in the Parish Hall.

FYI--The next Fatima Rosary on November 13th will be held in the Chapel at Seneca Sunrise due to work being done in the church.

Thank You

To Roger Wilke, Bob Warner, and Bernie Habe for helping Dom Reicks paint the stripes in the parking lots as well as the steps to the church. It was a project that was definitely needed to be done and looks great. Again thanks to you men for a job well done!

Confirmation

Congratulations to all the young people who were Confirmed here at Our Lady of Lourdes on Sunday, October 27th. Those from here at OLL were Hayden Bock, Emma Gentrup, Robert Gentrup, Naomi Hervert, Maggie Hurtya, Katie Jarzynka, Ella Rasmussen, Ella Simon, Lindsey Teichmeier, and Hailey Vogt. Those from St. Mary Pleasanton were Ava Janitscheck, Owen Janitscheck, Evan Kucera, Ava Paitz, and Samuel Smith. May you hold the love for Jesus Christ in your heart forever and spread it to everyone you meet in this lifetime. And a big THANK YOU to Joan Clifton and Angie Kucera for all your work getting these young people ready for this Sacrament. It involves many hours of teaching them about their faith and preparing them for this important step in their Catholic lives. And thank you also to the musicians and the people who helped serve the meal afterwards, it is so wonderful of you all to share your talents and time to make this a special event in these young people's lives.
